student directories, compiled by the Office of the Cultural Counselor of the Chinese Embassy at Washington, no comprehensive directories of Chinese students in America (giving their names in Chinese characters) have ever been published. In view of these limitations, one can readily see how difficult was the task of identifying the author's Chinese names.

In any compilation of this nature, omissions and errors are inevitable. I shall be grateful for any suggestions, in order that corrections may be made in any addendum to a future edition. It is hoped that the Guide will be kept up to date by supplements from time to time.

The editorial work could not have been accomplished without the cooperation and assistance of many friends and institutions. My debt to each of them can scarcely be repaid by a simple acknowledgment. In particular, I have been aided by the encouragement and counsel of Dr. Arthur W. Hummel and Dr. P. W. Kuo, President and Vice-President respectively of the Sino-American Cultural Society under whose auspices the work is published. To Dr. Tsao Wen-yen, Cultural Counselor of the Chinese Embassy, and to Messrs. Chu Yao-tsu and Bao You-yu, I am indebted for other aid and cooperation. I owe also a special debt to Mrs. Nina Peacock who spent many hours in preparing the final manuscript, in checking details, and in proof-reading. I wish to thank her here for her unremitting labor and efficient assistance.

Finally, I wish to express my thanks to the Trustees of the China Foundation for a travel grant which enabled me to bring the work to completion.
